Sustainable solutions to youth unemployment

Over 148,000 jobs created for SA youth

Join 1,700+ companies like Investec, Ford, Toyota, PG Group, Nedbank, Telesure Investment Holdings, Shoprite Group and many more in kickstarting the new economy.

The Youth Employment Service (YES) is a South Africa's largest and most impactful not-for-profit (NPO), dedicated to addressing the youth unemployment crisis in South Africa by creating 12-month quality work experiences for unemployed youth.

Founded through the CEO initiative, YES collaborates with government and labour to provide quality, private sector funded employment opportunities. It's the largest private sector-funded pipeline for unemployed talent in South Africa.

Since inception, YES and its partners have injected over R8.1 billion into the economy through YES Youth salaries. With a current run rate of creating 3,000-4,000 high-quality jobs per month, predominantly in the private sector, we are making a significant impact.

In return for creating youth jobs, businesses receive up to two levels up on their B-BBEE scorecards.

A national movement

YES is a national movement of over 1,700 companies, including leading businesses across various sectors. Our partners include The Foschini Group, Nedbank, Shoprite Checkers, Anglo American Platinum, and Investec. Together, we are creating a future that works for all.

Proven impact

Our efforts have resulted in a significant multiplier effect, where one job can create ten more. Many YES jobs are in sunrise industries, preparing our youth for the future and positioning South Africa as a leader in digital, technology, agriculture, and other key sectors.

We're not just providing jobs; we're creating opportunities for youth to become skilled professionals and change-makers. By integrating YES into ESG strategies, businesses have a meaningful and measurable impact on communities and the environment.

Creating a future that works for all.

Creating work experiences for youth means new taxpayers, new skilled employees, new customers, and a better South Africa.

YES Youth can be placed in the sponsoring business or, if preferred, via high impact turnkey partners, creating much needed jobs in communities.

Through YES, businesses can improve their B-BBEE scorecard by up to two levels while contributing to sustainable development goals (SDGs) and environmental, social, governance (ESG) strategies. This is a critical requirement for companies that need to demonstrate their impact to responsible investors.

Maintaining a B-BBEE level is required to participate in the second, third, and fourth programmes. Alternatively, companies can choose to participate in YES for non B-BBEE purposes.

* Defined in government legislation as quality work experiences (QWEs)

Sustainable solutions to youth unemployment

...ring a better future

Your ideal talent funnel

YES is an ideal talent funnel that de-risks recruitment. By enabling you to try out youth cohorts, YES helps you select the best fit for your organisation. Develop these gems into long-term employees who align with your culture and values and turn today's youth into tomorrow's managers.

The real potential and benefits of employing youth talent:

- Naturally innovative
- Digital natives who hold deep digital competencies
- Adaptable and cost-effective
- Youth are largest market segment in South Africa
- Authentic ambassadors for your brand

Let YES be your B-BBEE booster

Gain B-BBEE levels through impactful transformation with YES

Year one with YES

Businesses participating in YES for the first year can register before their financial year-end to gain their B-BBEE level(s) up immediately. Just ensure youth are contracted before your financial year-end date.

Year two+ with YES

From the second year of participation, businesses need to ensure that youth are contracted at least eight months before their verification period.

How to calculate your YES target

- Calculate your target number of youth work experiences to be created, meet your target to benefit with a B-BBEE rating increase of one full level, or two levels if you double your youth target.
- This is a unique and exclusive YES benefit, over and above the standard B-BBEE scorecard elements.
- Level up with YES and open up new competitive opportunities for your business.
- The YES web-based calculator lets you easily compute your YES Youth target - the number of youth lives to invest in and transform.
- Receive recognition in your Skills Development category by investing in informal training. Up to 50% of your spend on Skills Development can be claimed (Specifically in category F&G).

YES digital monitoring & evaluation

YES is committed to addressing the youth unemployment crisis by leveraging technology to provide quality work experiences and skill development.

Data free learning: Every youth has data free access to the zero-rated YES One app, providing world-class professional skills training.

Key features:

- ✓ Digital, real-time monitoring & evaluation
- ✓ Shifting behaviour and building a growth mindset with nudges and rewards
- ✓ Access to training and feedback via online and digital modules
- ✓ Tangible and transferable skills that develop youth's CV and reference letter

YES One app for supervisors

Supervisors can manage, monitor, and control the youth experience through the YES One app.

Company portal

Monitoring and evaluation are facilitated through the company portal, which allows the download of crucial documents for verification purposes.

YES currently deploys various proactive and reactive measures to fulfil its gazetted monitoring and evaluation function, these include:

Calling all current YES Youth via the YES Call Centre, youth feedback via apps, inductions and offboardings, supervisor feedback, a youth dedicated email address and a whistle-blower hotline.

For the YES Implementation Partner (IP) model, further checks and balances include IP site visits, the implementation partner management agreement with key performance indicators which are tracked the IP scorecard.

YES focuses on ensuring that all YES Youth thrive in a safe and productive environment and receive a quality work experience.

YES Digital Generation Model

YES Youth are fully digital, with a data-free reverse billing model and fantastic rewards.

In response to technological progress and the changing preferences of young people, YES has developed a data free and rewards-based model tailored to the digital generation. This innovative approach is designed to facilitate access to the YES learning programme by eliminating any data expenses for youth.

The YES Digital Generation Model consists of three key components:

Data-free access across all networks:

- Data-free access to the YES One App for youth on their own device across all networks, paid for by YES.
- This ensures uninterrupted access to our apps, allowing youth to use the device they are most comfortable with.

Rewards to drive learning/skills development:

Incentivising engagement with the YES learning modules through rewards, including data packages, tablets, and various other incentives.

Extensive learning incorporating digital skills:

- Incorporates digital literacy and AI, with continuous R&D to enhance usability and skills development.
- Ensuring accessibility through the Datafree Connect app

Datafree Connect, an application that youth will download, enables youth to access our YES One app at no mobile data cost to them, even with no airtime or data balance.

Benefits for business:

1. Streamlined administration

2. Expanded learning:

Includes digital literacy and AI integration, with continuous access to learning content.

The Digital Generation Model empowers youth for success in a digitally driven society, offering accessibility, engagement, and continuous growth.

Sustainable solutions to youth unemployment

How do I say YES

By joining YES, you are taking a significant step towards empowering South African youth and contributing to a brighter future.

Three easy steps to join YES and change lives:

Join YES to reduce South Africa's youth unemployment crisis and gain up to two levels up on your B-BBEE scorecard

STEP 1

YES target calculator

Calculate your YES Youth target using the online calculator.
Skip this step if you are not doing YES for B-BBEE purposes.

STEP 2

YES registration fee

Identify the YES registration fee that your company will pay annually.

STEP 3

YES packages

Select the package that your company will be using. The cost includes the YES smartphone and apps, the Supervisor app, as well as the monitoring and evaluation fee that your company will pay.

YES Hubs

When you walk into a YES Hub you walk into a new future.

YES Hubs are designed to break down barriers to youth employment and economic inclusion by connecting youth and the community to global best practices in training and technology.

-  A range of activities takes place at a YES Hub, enabling innovation and a cross-pollination of ideas, seeding points for new business.
-  The energy of our youth, combined with access to networks, market opportunities, and industry expertise, creates the perfect environment for small business development to thrive.
-  At a YES Hub, participants gain access to vital resources—networks, training, markets, work opportunities, career guidance, and the support necessary to turn ideas into reality.
-  Small businesses are the engines of job creation, which is why YES Hubs focus on attracting, nurturing, and supporting them.
-  As a registered PBO (public benefit organisation), YES offers S18(A) tax certificates for donations made to our Hubs, providing a tax benefit for our supporters.
