"Empowering Communities Through Integral Mission"

31 December 2019

To whom it may concern

Re: Letter of Service

Receive warm greetings from HOPE Africa.

This letter serves to confirm that Ms. Charmaine Mashile has served as a Community Healthcare Worker (CHW) for the Project Nomzamo in Nkangala District, Mpumalanga province, from 31st of December 2018 until 30th December 2019. The contract was a fixed term contract for twelve (12) months. The project was implemented in partnership with the Department of Health and Youth Employment Service (YES) Initiative.

As a CHW, Ms. Mashile had the following responsibility areas:

1. Facilitate community mobilization and create awareness on health diseases through awareness campaigns and mobilize around community needs;
2. Promote overall health and well-being within households and communities;
3. Provide information and health education and promote healthy behaviour and disease preventions;
4. Provide appropriate direct basic health services including screening for minor health problems/needs, counselling and psychosocial support for individuals of households;
5. Facilitate appropriate referral for health, rehabilitation and social support services as needed for individuals and households;
6. Provide adherence support for people on medication and support follow-care, including delivery of chronic medication;
7. Facilitate community mobilization and create awareness on health diseases through awareness campaigns and mobilize around community needs; and
8. Maintain good working relationships with local stakeholders, including but not limited to health facilities, community and faith leaders and Community Based Organizations.
9. General office administration, including completing data input forms, writing reports, and filing.

HEALTH • OPPORTUNITY • PARTNERSHIP • EMPOWERMENT

"Empowering Communities Through Integral Mission"

Ms. Mashile has demonstrated an ability to develop professional caring relationships with her clients, this is evident from the process notes and monthly reports, which show that the clients are going to clinics for health check-ups and they are adhering on treatment. The feedback from the community stakeholders, Community Based Organisation providing home-based care and local health facilities has been positive; Ms. Mashile has demonstrated diligent and professional approach to her work.
